

Satellite radio service is a premium service that I pay for each month. It is not broadcast on free airwaves. For my monthly charge, I should be able to get whatever content a law-obiding company is willing to provide. Do not allow radio stations to interfere with satellite radio. If they want listeners back, ask them to improved their content, reduce advertising, or in this case, improve their traffice and weather reports.